

08:00

Arrival and registration at The Bridge House Theatre

09:00-10:30

Welcome from Richard Nicholson, Foundation Principal, Warwick Schools Foundation

Next Gen panel Including GEN Z TALKS

Future Fwd Conference Survey by MTM Consulting: 'Survey 2023 - unique insights into our future-readiness' James Leggett (Managing Director, MTM Consulting) in conversation with Kirsty von Malaisé (Principal, King Edward VI High School for Girls)

Dave Coplin, Chief Envisioning Officer, The Envisioners: 'Rhyming with Reality: Learning to Thrive in a Generative AI World'

INDUSTRY, BUSINESS & ENTREPRENEURSHIP

King's High - The Drama Studio

10:45-11:30

Jonathan Harper: Empowering the next generation: how cross-sector partnerships and real-world projects are transforming education

11:30-12:15

Angela Joyce: The Skills System: the challenges and opportunities of matching supply and demand

12:15

LUNCH

13:15-14:00

Dr Fiona Aldridge, Head of Insight - Economic Delivery, Skills and Communities, West Midlands Combined Authority

14:00-14:45

Prof. Chris White: Technology and the Future of Work

14:45-15:30

Diane Vernon MBE: The Future of Social Mobility and what we can do differently

15:30-16:15

Russell Winyard: Future proofing education through applied learning

ARTS, CULTURE & MUSIC

King's High - The Studio

Dr Steven Berryman: Making space for creativity, arts, and cultural education

Dr Lucy Gill-Simmen: Learning through Hockney's Eye - Technology & Creativity in Education

LUNCH

Christina Timms: Partnerships: Why us? Why now? Who and How?

Crispin Woodhead: More notes from a playground: the OAE residency at Acland Burley School a further year on

Jeremy Dibb, Debbie Jagla, Dr Ben Hamilton, Richard Hart: 'Sings and Strings' - musical partnerships with Warwick Schools Foundation

Dr Anthony Anderson: Beautiful curriculum: a vision for music education

CURRICULUM, LEARNING & PEDAGOGY

King's High - Hall

Olly Newton: Developing a Curriculum for the Future

Tom Ravenscroft: Building employability with rigour

LUNCH

Dr Joanne Ladds: Designing the right environment for pupil performance

Catherine Nyman and Speakers: Curriculum - the beating heart: innovation and creativity

Clemmie Stewart, Marcus Cook, Julie Johnson, Victoria Sarson: The whole child - a rich curriculum

Dr Phil Seal & Kim Wyatt: A Future Facing Curriculum - two case studies from Warwick Schools Foundation

TECH, GAMING & AI

Bridge House Theatre

Dan Frost: The future is built by those who build it

Marianne Pickles: Ready Learner One: how playing video games supports learning

LUNCH

Jonathan Usherwood: Towards the classroom of 2030

Tom Doust: Digital Creativity: fostering learner-centered creative thinking and making.

Elizabeth Anderson: Fighting over a laptop: Digital poverty in education

Emily Mitchell, Education & CSR Manager, Ubisoft Reflections & Ubisoft Leamington

SPECIAL EDUCATION - INCLUSION, NEURODIVERGENCE & EMPLOYABILITY

Rosconn Auditorium

Nick Evans: Special Education - My Vision

Anita Gleave: Inclusive Education: Walking the walk

LUNCH

Jen James: The Future of Inclusion

Sian Crossley: Autism and Employment

Event hosted by 1 Mill Street Leamington: Employing young people with SEND - an informal workshop to find out more about the partnership between Evergreen School students and this local business. Enjoy a coffee!

Claire Cookson: What about tomorrow? Supporting learners with SEND to thrive in employment

16:30

Dave Coplin - Chief Envisioning Officer, The Envisioners: 'Rhyming with Reality: AI through the Lens of the Conference'

17:00

Rachel Sandby-Thomas CB, Registrar, University of Warwick: 'Looking back: looking forward'

17:30

Closing remarks, Richard Nicholson, Foundation Principal, Warwick Schools Foundation

18:00

Evening Reception at Warwick Castle

DAY TWO
4 JULY

08:30 Registration at The Bridge House Theatre

09:00 Roundtable discussions
Chairs and contributors include:
Dr Steven Berryman
Richard Hart
Nick Evans
Jas Rohel
Dr Joanne Ladds
Matthew Watson

12:00 Plenary

13:00 Lunch

14:00 Conference Ends

