

SCHEDULE

DAY 1 – MONDAY 8 JULY

- 08.00 Arrival and Registration at Bridge House Theatre
- 09.00 Welcome to Future Fwd 2024
- 09.10 Rachel Sandby-Thomas CB, Registrar, University of Warwick; Member, Labour’s Council of Skills Advisors: A Skills Agenda? Skills Through the Lens of a Labour Skills Advisor
- 09.40 The 2024 Survey
- 10.00 ‘Ignite’ Gen Z Student Panel

- 10.30 Break
- 10.45 Dave Coplin, Chief Envisioning Officer, The Envisioners: Rise of the Humans – Thriving in a Generative AI World
- 11.15 Jeremy Dibb: Singing for Wellbeing in Action
- 11.40 Introduction by Stream Leads
- 12.00 Lunch

SPEAKER STREAMS

	CURRICULUM AND LEARNING: Bridge House Theatre	ARTS & CULTURE: Rosconn Auditorium	INDUSTRY & ENTERPRISE: Science Lecture Theatre	SINGING & WELLBEING FOR CHILDREN AND YOUNG PEOPLE: King’s High Drama Studio	AI, TECH & GAMING: King’s High Main Hall	SPECIAL EDUCATION - INCLUSION, NEURODIVERGENCE & EMPLOYABILITY: King’s High Drama Studio 2
13.00-13.30 (Q&A 13.30-13.40)	Dr Joanne Ladds: Designing Learning Spaces for a Curriculum for the Future	Dr Steven Berryman, Amy McGann & Derri Bourdon: Leading Cultural Education: Developing Teachers	Hayley Peacock: What’s the Point of School?	Jeremy Dibb & Cerys Purser: Warwick – A Singing Town: Promoting Wellbeing in Schools	Andrew Flowerdew: Looking Back to the Future of AI and Learning: Using Lessons from Past Technological Change to Explore the Potential for AI in the Learning Environment	Nick Evans: The Culture and Ethos of Inclusion
13.40-14.10 (Q&A 14.10-14.20)	Vicky Bingham & Robin Street: What Can an Innovation Centre Do for Me? Why North London Collegiate School is Establishing an Educational Innovation Centre	Adam Whittaker: Partnership Working to Support Creativity: Potential Models, Challenges, and Opportunities	Tom Ravenscroft: Building Soft Skills with Rigour	Professor Graham Welch: The Wider Benefits of Singing in Childhood and Adolescence	Jenny Parkinson-Mills: How Can we Build the Future of Education that we Want to See?	James Allen & Andrew Hammond: One Size Does Not Fit All: A New Approach for the Future of Inclusive Education
14.20-14.50 (Q&A 14.50-15.00)	Rob Yates: Empowering Teachers: Harnessing Research-Based CPD	Sandwell CBSO Team, led by Tom Spurgin: An Orchestra, Academy Trust, and Music Hub in Partnership	Chris Anders: Opportunity and Opportunism	Ann Wright: Education and The VOCES8 Foundation	Dr Fiona Aubrey-Smith: From EdTech to PedTech: The Impact of a Pedagogy-First Mindset	Stephen Steinhaus: Adapt for Impact: An AP View of our Changing (Educational) World
15.00-15.30 (Q&A 15.30-15.40)	Dr Phil Seal & Alex Quinn: Speaking Out: Re-thinking Assessment Through Oracy	David Rich: The Impact of The Music in Secondary Schools Trust in Disadvantaged Schools	Max Kelly: The Tansley Principle: Building an Ecology of Achievement and Aspirations	Rebecca Ledgard: Ex Cathedra – Singing Medicine and How it Has Influenced Our Singing in Schools	Professor Rupert Wegerif: Generative AI and the Turn to Dialogue in Education	Rebecca Lynch & Jonathan Sullivan: Symbols at Home, School and Beyond
15.40-16.10 (Q&A 16.10-16.20)	Dr Fran Wilby: I am More Than Just My Grades: How Can Learner Profiles Evidence a Breadth of Skills and Strengths?	Anna Rimington: What Happens When an Orchestra Moves into a Secondary School	Professor Chris White: What Makes a Science Superpower?	Dr Lucy Gill-Simmen: AI, Art & Inclusive Education: Making an Impact	Amy Creatura: Leadership for Innovative SEND Practice
16.20-16.50 (Q&A 16.50-17.00)	James Harding: Curriculum, Innovation & Cultural Awareness: Reaffirming the Humanities in the Age of AI	Sophie Lewis & Catherine Arlidge MBE: National Children’s Orchestras: Reimagined for Impact

- 17.00 Feedback from Stream Leads
- 17.15 David Harkin, CEO, 8billionideas: My Hopes For Education – A Passion Focused Approach
- 17.45 Richard Nicholson, Principal, Warwick Schools Foundation: Closing remarks
- 18.15 Networking at Warwick Castle evening dinner and reception – continuing the conversation (hosted by Noble + Eaton)

SCHEDULE

DAY 2 - TUESDAY 9 JULY

09.00 Welcome

FUTURE READY SKILLS WORKSHOPS

	DELEGATES	LOCATION	GEN Z	LOCATION
09.10	Barry Fletcher , CEO, Youth Futures Foundation: The Power of Evidence	Bridge House Theatre	James Uffindell , Founder & CEO - Bright Network & Stephanie Kerr , Executive Director, BID Leamington: A Founder's Journey - Using An Entrepreneurial Mindset to Power Your Career	King's High School Main Hall
09.45	Dr Joanne Ladds: Designing Learning Spaces to Improve Cognition, Wellbeing and Performance Jeremy Dibb: S.I.N.G the Wonder Drug: How a Singing Curriculum can Support Resilience and Wellbeing in Schools Jenny Parkinson-Mills: How to Use AI Safely and Effectively to Enhance Teaching and Learning Sarah Seleznyov, Big Education: New Leadership Approaches for New Ways of Thinking About School Dr Steven Berryman: Planning for Cultural Education	Rosconn Auditorium King's High School Drama Studio Warwick School Portcullis Room King's High Drama Studio 2 Warwick School Conference Room	Jonathan Harper : Mastering Leadership of Yourself as a Foundation for High-Impact Social Leadership	King's High School Main Hall

- 10.40 Break
- 10.55 Roundtable Discussions - King's High Main Hall
- 12.30 Feedback and Close
- 13.00 Lunch

